Welcome Rotarians, Guests and Speaker!

Ashley Nelson, 2019-2020 Coweta County Teacher of the Year

Ashley Nelson is a second-grade teacher at Ruth Hill Elementary School. Nelson had originally intended to become a child advocacy lawyer, but her career goals changed after she spent a required college semester in a kindergarten classroom, witnessing the impact the teacher had on her students.

After spending the first three years of her career teaching fourth and fifth grades at Welch Elementary School, Nelson relocated to Massachusetts to teach a self-contained emotional and behavioral program for grades 2-4. She piloted a similar program for high-schoolers and led that unit for two years before returning to Georgia and joining the staff of Ruth Hill. In her five years at Ruth Hill, Nelson has taught fourth grade, second grade and school-wide math intervention. She currently leads the school's Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports (PBIS) team as well as the Soaring Eagles Girls Running Club, which she founded to promote self-confidence and interpersonal skills in female students.
