Business as Missions in Kenya

This Friday, welcome Janie Lore who will share with us a recent missions trip to Kenya, which involved training women to begin and operate their own businesses.

Janie Lore began her teaching career in Coweta County and taught Business Education at Central High, Newnan High and East Coweta High. She also spent three years at Valdosta High teaching English. She implemented the first Youth Apprenticeship Program in Coweta County, and then became the first principal of Central Educational Center when it opened in 2000. After retirement in 2003, she was the director of the Newnan Campus for Brewton-Parker College for seven years. She enjoys traveling, reading, and volunteering for Coweta First Foundation.

Needed: Volunteers to be trained for Music & Memory project

Committee chairs are seeking committee members. A sign-up is available.
